- (5) The National Judicial Commission shall have a separate secretarial staff and their conditions of service shall be such as the President may, in consultation with the Chief Justice of India, by rule determine."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Government of India have in the recent past announced their intention to set up a high level judicial commission, to be called the National Judicial Commission for the appointment of Judges of the Supreme Court and of the High Courts and the transfer of Judges of the High Courts so as to obviate the criticism of arbitrariness on the part of the Executive in such appointments and transfers and also to make such appointments without any delay. The Law Commission of India in their One Hundred and Twenty-first Report also emphasised the need for a change in the system.

- 2. The National Judicial Commission to make recommendations with respect to the appointment of Judges of the Supreme Court will consist of the Chief Justice of India and two other Judges of the Supreme Court next in seniority to the Chief Justice of India. The Commission to make recommendations with respect to the appointment of the Judges of the High Courts will consist of the Chief Justice of India, one senior-most Judge of the Supreme Court, the Chief Minister of the State concerned, Chief Justice of the concerned High Court and one senior-most Judge of that High Court.
 - 3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

DINESH GOSWAMI.

New Delhi; The 11th May, 1990.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 6 of the Bill seeks to insert article 307A in the Constitution to empower the President to constitute the National Judicial Commission. The National Judicial Commission will have as its Chairman the Chief Justice of India, and as its Members, the Chief Ministers of the concerned States, the Chief Justices of the concerned High Courts, and other senior Judges of the Supreme Court and High Courts. These functionaries will be devoting only part of their time in connection with the work of the Commission, and will draw the travelling and other allowances from the respective budgets.

- 2. The Commission will have a separate office of its own. The strength and level of the officers and staff to be employed in this office will be determined from time to time by the Chairman of the Commission with the approval of the President. Expenditure will have to be incurred on their salaries and on contingencies for running the office. It is not possible to estimate at this stage the likely expenditure to be involved on this account. However, the expenditure, whether recurring or non-recurring, will be met out of the budgetary grants of the Department of Justice.
- 3. The Bill, when enacted, will not involve any other recurring or non-recurring expenditure.

SUBHASH C. KASHYAP, Secretary-General.
